The next two pages show images of 1) a typical Bletchley enigma intercept sheet, before decryption and translation, and then 2) a typical Bletchley intercept sheet after decryption, in that order.

An Enigma decryption from Bletchley Park, formed from parts of two messages to the German Army Group Courland (Kurland) on Feb. 14, 1945. The basic German form has been mostly deciphered, but would have been further analyzed by language and military experts to gain maximum information. (Photo courtesy Dr. David Hamer)
