MAIL SUBSCRIPTION RECORD

ST. OR RT.

NWOT

NAME

	Mr. and Mrs. G the Sand Springs received word that Bob Sanders, has somewhere in En Sergeant Sander enjoyed the trip land he visited in he didn't like the American cities. H ents that people i many more serio face than do reside ed States. His add cured from his pa	t their son, s arrived sa gland. rs writes tha across. In I n Liverpool, town as well town as well as shortage ents of the U lress may be rents.	sgt. fely the Ing- but ll as par- have s to Juit- e se- 7	75M/3	$\f\\ 6\t\\ \\ \\ \\ \\ \\ \\ \\ \\ \\ \\ \\ \\
OT GIAG STAG	GIAG TNUOMA OT GIAG STAG			GIAG TNUOMA
REMARKS % PM New York, N. Y.

McCaln, Miss. 312th 100g, 337,, DONNERS OFF OF HUNEY HOOR WOLL)01111 Millions, 37503301, Co. Throntolo The Indiana Mississippi THE FOLLOWS: Tryl. APO 448, ('0111) Traduit ors, 37503301, Co. A. 312th Eng. APO 348, Camp McCain, Miss. 24-Ple, Robert D. Sand Birthday

Cain, Miss., is here on a ten day and Mrs. George Sanders, jr. of and Mrs. amily will have a reunion Sunhe Sand Springs community ne army July 13, and Marvin ay with the three sons, John, of Bob Cpl. Sanders of Camp Me-Sanders Home The Promoted to Sergeant.

iny February 1. son, Bob, that he received a ser-Sanders was inducted into the argeant's rating on December 6. Sgt. ity have received word from their Jr., of the Sand Springs communand Mrs. George Sanders, master, Nashville, Tenn. 325 Engr Sanders, ASN 37503301, Hiss address is Sgt. Robert D. Bn., APO 477, c/o Post-

Sanders Transferred.

Springs community has been trans-Sgt. Bob Sanders of the

of more strong

Fort Jackson, South Carolina. His new address is: Sgt. Sanders, ASN 37503301, Co A, 312 Engr's. Bn., APO No. 448, Fort Jackson, South Carolina.

DIES IN ACTION

Sergeant Sanders Killed in Battle on Belgian Front

Another Abilene boy has been added to the roll of service men killed in action with the announcement that Sergeant Robert Sanders, the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Sanders, who live south of Sand Springs, was killed in action in Belgium January 11.

The telegram from the war department, announcing the death of Sergeant Sanders, arrived Thursday evening. He had been in Europe about two months when he was killed on the battlefields of Belgium. It was on November 1 that he left a port of embarkation on the east coast to go to Europe.

His parents have not learned in whose army Sergeant Sanders was serving, although they have had several letters from him since he arrived in Europe. Two letters, dated January 2 and 6, arrived last Saturday.

January 11, the day on which he was killed, was the day before the Russians launched their great offensive in the east. On that day, the British Second army was driving into the western tip of the Belgian bulge, General Patton's men were driving to expand their foothold at Bastogne and the American First army on the north apparently had just won a terrific 30-hour tank battle. However, there is no way of knowing with which of those forces Sergeant Sanders may have been serving.

He would have been 22 years old next May. A graduate of the Abilene high school in 1942, he entered the service in February 1943.

Two other Sanders boys are in the service. Marvin, only 19, shipped from an east coast port late in December for foreign duty. His parents have had no word from him. John, who is 23, is serving somewhere in the Southwest Pacific theater.

Besides the parents, Sergeant Sanders is survived by six brothers and sisters at home: Catherine, Joan, Betty, Shirley, Martha and George, Jr.