

Lawrence Stalker

Army Air Corps

Lawrence Stalker

Aug 18, 1914 - Sep 11, 1989

BIRTHPLACE: Boone County, Nebraska

SOLDIER DETAILS

HIGHEST RANK: SGT

DIVISION: Army Air Corps, 29th Troop Carrier Squadron, 313th Troop Carrier Group

THEATER OF OPERATION: European

SERVED: May 13, 1942 - Sep 2, 1945

BATTLE: Sicilian Naples-Foggia, Rome - ARNO, Normandy, Northern France, Rhineland, Central Europe

MILITARY HONORS: Good Conduct Medal, Distinguished Unit Badge (GO212, 313 Hq9AF, 44, 45), American Defense Ribbon, European-African-Middle Eastern Theater (EAME) Ribbon with 1 Silver and 2 Bronze Battle Stars, 4 Overseas Bars, 1 Service Stripe.

HONORED BY: Larry R. Stalker, son

BIOGRAPHY

Role in Service: Special Vehicle Operator. Operated a 2,000 gallon semi-trailer refueling planes by means of a pressure pump. Trained at Jefferson Barracks, Missouri; Bowman Field, Kentucky; Florence, South Carolina; Maxton, North Carolina. Lucky 13 fun facts: Sgt. Stalker was inducted into the Army Air Corps on May 13, 1942; departed overseas on May 13, 1943 on the 13th trip the ship made transporting troops; there were 13 planes in the squadron of the 313th Troop Carrier Group. Sgt. Stalker returned to the U.S. on August 16, 1945, and was discharged at Fort Sheridan, Illinois, on September 2, 1945, after serving 40 months.